

ASEF Junior Fellowship - štipendije za raziskovalni obisk v Sloveniji

Ameriško-slovenska izobraževalna fundacija ASEF je objavila razpis za štipendijski program ASEF Junior Fellows - štipendije za obiske v Sloveniji. Gre za enoletni program, v okviru katerega izbrani študenti opravijo raziskovalno-delovno prakso na slovenskih fakultetah in v slovenskih podjetjih, sodelujejo pri raziskovalnih projektih s svojega področja delovanja in se vključujejo v razne dejavnosti, ki jih izvaja ASEF, kot so delavnice mehkih veščin, treningi javnega nastopanja, javna predavanja in pogovori z zanimivimi gosti.

Možne so prijave za področja fizike, biologije, medicine, strojništva, elektrotehnike, računalništva, matematike, ekonomije, okoljskih znanosti, glasbe, prava, lingvistike, politologije, humanistike in drugih ved. Prijave so odprte za vse študente slovenskih korenin in tiste, ki imajo izkazan interes za prakso v Sloveniji, ne glede na stopnjo in kraj študija.

Rok za prijavo je 1. december 2020.

Prijave morajo biti oddane na tej povezavi. Morebitna vprašanja pošljite na info@asef.net.

Fundacija ASEF povezuje Slovence doma in po svetu. Fundacija štipendira slovenske študente in študente slovenskih korenin za 10-tedenske raziskovalno-delovne obiske v vrhunskih podjetjih in fakultetah v Sloveniji. Štipendijski programi ASEF krepijo sodelovanje in kroženje znanja med Slovenijo in preostalim svetom. ASEF nadarjenim študentom omogoča, da se osredotočijo na raziskovanje in razvijejo svoje potenciale v največji možni meri.

Vabljeni k prijavi!

ASEF Junior Fellowship - Fellowships for students to visit Slovenia

American Slovenian Education Foundation ASEF published a call for the ASEF Junior Fellows program to visit Slovenia. ASEF Fellowships for students to visit Slovenia is a one-year program, which enables students to do a 10-week work/research visit at a university, company, or a research institute in the area of their field of study/expertise. Additionally, during the visit, Junior Fellows engage in activities organized by ASEF Society of Fellows, including research projects and collaborations with other Fellows, participation at the events organized by ASEF, leadership and career development workshops, and attend regular public lectures and other events organized by ASEF. Further, Junior Fellows are expected to contribute to the Society and give back to the community under the guidance and mentorship of ASEF.

The deadline for submitting all application materials is December 1, 2020.

The applications should be submitted by online form. Any questions you can send to info@asef.net.

The ASEF Junior Fellows program provides fellows with comprehensive support, allowing them to focus on their professional development at Slovenia's top universities, institutes, and companies. The purpose of the fellowship program is to give talented students of Slovenian heritage an opportunity to grow professionally, while also getting to experience Slovenia, its language and culture. The aim is to strengthen research and study exchange between Slovenia and other countries and help those who have an interest in Slovenian culture and want to realize their potential to the fullest.

You are invited to apply!
